

FAMILY HISTORY SELF- INTERVIEW

This series of questions is designed to help you decide what you would like your family message to say in the Endowment Book of Life. Please use these questions in a way that is helpful.

Your message should be brief – up to 120 words in length. Couples who chose to write separate messages are still limited to a combined total of 120 words per page.

If you would like additional help composing your message, please call the Jewish Foundation of Memphis at 901-374-0400.

- Were there special circumstances or life experiences that led you to create a legacy for the Memphis Jewish community?
- What are your family's roots?
- Why is supporting the Jewish community through philanthropy important to you?
- Was philanthropy part of your childhood?
- What ideas about philanthropy would you like your children and grandchildren to remember?
- What are your concerns about the future of the Jewish community?
- What are your dreams for the future of the Jewish community?
- How do you think your legacy will help make them a reality?
- How does your legacy to the Jewish community express your commitment to Jewish tradition and the Jewish people?
